Collar de la señora Mucha 1906
oro y piedras semipreciosas
25 x 20

Mucha diseñó este collar, realizado por el reconocido joyero praguense Rechner, como regalo de bodas para su esposa. Tres palomas con plumas de ópalo, símbolo del amor y el matrimonio, forman la parte central del collar, que lleva además como ornamentos amuletos en forma de herradura y picas y racimos de piedras semipreciosas.

CHAPITRE I

Depuis une saison que les pèlerins avaient quitté le territoire de Blaye, Jaufré Rudel avait vu lentement se préciser sa vision. Maintenant il connaissait son visage, la profondeur de ses yeux, la douce beauté de ses regards. Si réellement une femme vivait quelque part, dont cette forme n'eut été que l'émanation et qu'elle se fût présentée à lui, il l'eut reconnue tout de suite. Il se fut élancé vers elle et prosterné à ses genoux, baisant ses pieds et assurant son cœur de son éternel amour.

Mais cependant la dame du Rêve ne lui apparaissait plus seule, cheveux, j'en ai semé la route, et j'en glorifie la croix rouge que vous portez sur votre cœur qui ne bat plus qu'à peine. Ma pensée, toujours tournée vers les rivages lointains du pays de France, a semé dans les parterres de mes jardins ces roses et ces violettes; c'est véritablement elle qui fit naître leurs moissons modestes et parfumées, et chaque fois que, loin de moi, vous respiriez leur parfum, elles croissaient, humides de rosée, à l'ombre des palmes immobiles. Elles m'ont dit vos souffrances, elles m'ont dit de vous aimer et pour cela elles m'ont révélé tout ce qu'elles savaient de votre cœur et de votre âme. Les fleurs ont des voix, des voix lointaines et doucement graves. Je leur ai obéi.

Il admire cette sagesse de la Providence qui pourvoit, chaque jour, à tous les besoins des êtres qui vivent autour de lui. Il voit que, des mamelles de la terre, sortent des fleuves de lait aux quels s'abreuve la soif de l'homme, tandis que la Bonté Divine lui donne le pain spirituel de l'Amour qui vient rassasier la faim de son âme.

MUCHA

THE LIFE AND WORK OF THE GREATEST DECORATIVE ARTIST IN THE WORLD

ALPHONSE MUCHA. Sketched from life by Berger for this paper.

Roses

Lilies

Mucha—An Appreciation

[illegible]

By J. Hayden-Clarendon

[illegible]

BY FREDERIC DIELMAN,

President of the American Academy of Design.

I FIND the design "Friendship" a most charming one, showing as it does M. Mucha's well-known and altogether delightful characteristics, and cordially congratulate the paper upon having secured it for its pages.

The relationship between France and America has been happily typified by the two figures in the drawing, as in matters of art America has been most particularly the foster child of France, and is still greatly under her guidance.

M. Mucha's work is too well known and admired by the artists of this country to need any colour from me. It is esteemed more highly, perhaps, than that of any other artist active in his chosen field.

By WM. DE LEFTWICH DODGE.

THE advent of Mucha into this country is propitious. He will be cordially welcomed. Undoubtedly he stands at the head of his own school, especially in that class of artistic poster which has made his name famous.

His great success lies in his wonderful control of his "line," by which I mean the "poetry of line" which makes his drawings so original.

So much do I admire the man and his work that I cannot say anything that would convey my true appreciation of it.

"Friendship" is typically Mucha. I envy the possessor of so valuable and artistic a drawing. Its conception is delightful.
